

Walter Manara, Director, Deutsche Asset Management, Europe

Mr Manara is a Director of Deutsche Asset Management's infrastructure business. Deutsche Asset Management is the asset management division of Deutsche Bank AG and is one of the largest asset managers in the world. Mr Manara is responsible for originating infrastructure investment opportunities, leading the implementation of the transactions and the ongoing management of those businesses. Mr. Manara led the execution and the asset management of a number of landmark investments in the European infrastructure sector and he is currently a member of the board of directors of Akiem (Rail rolling stock – France), TCR (Ground support equipment - Belgium) and Plateau Green Energy (Wind energy – Spain). Whilst at Deutsche Asset Management Mr Manara also held board positions at Tank & Rast (Motorway service stations – Germany), Autovía del Camino (Motorway – Spain) and Bahía de Bizkaia Gas (LNG terminal – Spain).

Mr. Manara joined Deutsche AM Infrastructure in June 2007, having previously worked within the Acquisition Finance Group of Société Générale Corporate & Investment Banking. Mr. Manara is an Italian national and speaks Italian, English, French and Spanish. Mr. Manara holds a Diplôme de Grande Ecole from ESCP-EAP business school (Paris) majoring in finance.